Wall Mount CabinetStructure and Installation

Wall mount vanities present challenges to both the manufacturer and the installation contractor. Woodpro designed metal corner braces that greatly strengthen the vanity once it's on the wall. Two-bowl models have additional braces. The wall itself, however, must be prepared for the weight of the vanity.

The wall mount vanity requires a horizontal cut-in brace centered 33" above floor level. The brace is a 2x10 (or larger) and must be at least long enough to tie in to a stud on each end of the vanity. If there are no local building codes, we recommend securing the 2x10 to each stud with 3 (ea) 16-penny framing nails or 2 1/2" screws.

The wall mount linen tower requires an additional cut in brace centered 60" above floor level. It must be a 2x6 or larger and must be long enough to tie into a stud on each side of the linen tower. If there are no local building codes, we recommend securing the 2x6 to each stud with 2 (ea) 16-penny framing nails or 2 1/2" screws.

For additional support, and as an aid to installation, we provide a wood strip for attaching to the wall at the bottom of the cabinet.

Please educate your consumers. The additional brace in the wall is required. Failure to properly augment the wall will result in out-of-warranty product failure and possibly even injury or death. See complete instructions at woodpro.com
